

RSCM Scottish Voices

Choral Evensong

The Old Parish Church

High Street

Peebles

EH45 8SW

4pm, Saturday 5th April 2014

Introit: Christ has no body now but yours (David Ogden)
Responses: Richard Ayleward
Psalms: 42 & 43 (chants: Frikki Walker & James Turle)
Canticles: Magnificat & Nunc Dimittis in D minor (Thomas Walmisley)
Anthem: Salvator Mundi (John Blow)

Director: Richard Walmisley (Organist and Master of the Choristers, St Ninian's Episcopal Cathedral, Perth)
Organist: Peter Wakeford (Assistant Organist, St Mary's Episcopal Cathedral, Glasgow)

RSCM Scottish Voices, part of the Royal School of Church Music, is an adult choir that aims to draw together some of the most accomplished and experienced church musicians in Scotland to sing services six times a year in a variety of cathedrals, abbeys and significant churches around the country.

To enquire about auditioning to join or for more information please email Gary Young at administrator@rscmscottishvoices.org.uk or check our Website at www.rscmscottishvoices.org.uk and please follow us on Twitter @RSCMScotVoices

RSCM To find out what the RSCM in Scotland can do for you and for music in your church, whatever
SCOTLAND the style and whatever your resources, please visit their website at www.rscmscotland.org